

1. BALI – Multi-module Corner System with relax function

STELLA Sp. z o.o. POLDEM Group

This model is characterised by the lightness of its form, emphasised by high, elegant legs and the use of a rather low base. The prestigious character of the collection was accentuated by precisely applied finishing elements. The collection guarantees exceptional comfort and relaxation. The structure of seats and backrests is based on the layers of a whole range of foams. All modules feature smoothly adjustable headrests and can be optionally equipped with the Relax function in the cardio version.

2. DIXON – Multi-module Corner System

STELLA Sp. z o.o. POLDEM Group

This line has been designed for living room spaces arranged in a modern style. The delicate, rounded lines of the seats and backrests, as well as the spacious armrest create the impression of exceptional comfort and relaxation at from the first look at this shape. A concept created to ensure freedom of fabric and colour, i.e. the possibility of adopting different upholstery colours for individual modules. The design was awarded in two competitions – the domestic 'Furniture Diamond 2024' and the furniture fair in Brussels – 'Balthazars'.

3. Elipse

WAJNERT MEBLE Sp. z o. o.

ELIPSE is a collection of modern upholstered furniture, characterised by a sleeping function, a comfortable seat and backrest. ### 5. ILUSIO

Fabryka Mebli WERSAL Z.B.Ł. Kaczorowscy Sp. k.

ILUSIO is distinguished by its rounded shape, which perfectly fits the latest trends. The simple form of the corner sofa has been enriched with a rounded lounge, and additional backrest cushions allow you to take a comfortable position while resting. The electric seat extension allows you to increase the usable space by 17 cm. The headrests are mounted on aluminium sliding mechanisms to adapt the rest to individual needs. The design of the mechanism gives this piece of furniture an original character, thanks to which incredible comfort goes hand in hand with an elegant and minimalist look. The corner sofa is placed on interesting legs, intersecting at an angle, which create an integral whole and refer to the black, matte automatic headrests. All these details make the ILUSIO model the quintessence of comfort, good style and functionality, thus meeting the expectations of even the most demanding users.

11. ROSTOCK

Fabryka Mebli TARANKO Aleksander Taranko

The ROSTOCK collection combines classic with modernity and functionality. The combination of natural oak veneer with black colour gives the furniture from this collection a simple form, while presenting good style and elegance. The range of shapes allows for any composition, depending on the purpose and organisation of the space. The harmonious combination of nature with modernity and subtle style makes the collection work well in both simple interiors and those dominated by colours and accessories.

12. Tiny Sofa

WAJNERT MEBLE Sp. z o.o.

The light design and slim proportions make the Tiny sofa perfect for small rooms. Its delicate appearance will add style to any living room. This is a unique response to the needs of modern families. We offer two types of sides to choose from, so you can choose the one that best suits the dimensions and interior arrangement. Thanks to the large sleeping function and bedding container, you no longer have to choose between functionality and good design. An ideal visual and practical complement is an oak table or coffee tray, built into the structure of the sofa, creating an extraordinary duo.
